How I treat you mirrors my closeness to the Creator, the Highest. Every human in the world is important and is worthy of that belief.

By being a role model (Noah)

The Creator chose Noah but not everyone else, why?

Noah lived in a wicked world. In his time, people did not have much decency. People forgot the value of decency to such a high level that our Creator had to restart humanity, only sparing Noah who had not been corrupted by wickedness. Our Creator made a promise to Noah that he would never again send a flood to wipe out his creation, whom all are the descendants of Noah, because we would never again be like the generation of Noah. In his generation, murdering, stealing, rape, animal cruelty, blasphemy, idolatry and lawlessness was the greatest way of life they could come up with. I completely distance myself from the likeness of Noah's generation, but the Creator is above me.

- I want to stop all forms of murder against anyone by not doing it myself.
- I want to stop all forms of theft against anyone by not doing it myself.
- I want to stop all forms of adultery against anyone by not doing it myself.
- I want to establish Courts of Justice as the one-stop-shop venue to evaluate how im doing.
- I want to stop all forms of animal cruelty against animals by not doing it myself.
- I want to stop all forms of blasphemy against anyone by not doing it myself.
- I want to stop all forms of idolatry against anyone by not doing it myself.

By constructive conflict resolution

Without Courts there is no Justice

To use constructive non-violent means to solve conflict is to use courts of justice. One of the commandments is to establish courts of justice. Therefore The right way to act in times conflict or difficulty for B'nei Noach is to use non-violent means to solve it constructively. This act legitimizes justice for the remaining six other commandments, and it inspires the value of laws to the world.

By finding commonality and respecting differences

Humanity was created in the likeness of The Creator, in Oneness

To find commonality and to respect differences is to value the wholeness of the creation, every person has a part of the divine creation in them which connects them to the Creator. He is whom I want to please, and follow his law as my means to serve him on my free will. with my service, I hope to achieve for people to feel as if they were created in the likeness of the Creator, and in Oneness as humanity.

By being responsible for my own decisions and actions

The Divine law is equal in weight, without severity differentiation.

Fear of The Creator is the beginning of Wisdom (Proverbs 9:10). I think all Noahide laws are equal in weight, for example Blasphemy is just as bad as murder. There is no differences of severity within the law, For example Stealing a bread is just as bad as stealing a car. Each law represents all forms of associated violations, for example Blasphemy might also include gossip and slander.
